SHREVEPORT DIVISION

CLINTON STRANGE,
Plaintiff

Case No. 5:19-CV-00202-EEF-KLH

v.

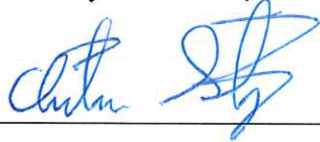

AGENTRA, LLC,
Defendant

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO DISMISS THE ACTION WITH PREJUDICE

PLAINTIFF'S STATEMENTS REGARDING THE MOTION BEFORE THE COURT

1. Clinton Strange, the pro se Plaintiff in this action, brought suit in this U.S. District Court against Defendant Agentra, LLC on or around February 15, 2019 because he alleged they, or alternatively their third-party marketing partners, placed numerous autodialed calls using a pre-recorded voice to his cellphone without his prior consent and that in doing so they violated subsections b and c of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991 [See ECF No.1].
2. The Plaintiff at this time out of his own free will and volition move on this Court to dismiss his action with prejudice on all counts as they pertain to the Defendant Agentra, LLC.
3. No one threatened, intimidated, or coerced the Plaintiff into filing this dismissal motion.
4. The Plaintiff is of sound mind.
5. The Plaintiff has attached a proposed order for the convenience and consideration of the Court [See Exhibit A].

Respectfully Submitted,
